

Adult Winter Read Challenge Sponsored by Friends of Union County Library (FOUCL)

Pick up packets with logs and title suggestions at Union County Public Library (right outside the Friends Room located immediately to your left as you enter the library). Packets will be available beginning Friday, February 1. Drop off completed logs and pick up additional logs in this same location until Friday, April 26. The FOUCL May newsletter will include the top participant-recommended book titles along with names of the 3 people recording the most pages of completed titles.

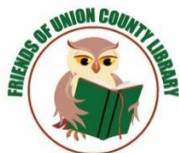

In conjunction with the Winter Read Challenge, FOUCL is sponsoring 3 FREE programs in the library's Community Room during February, March, and April. Everyone in our community and surrounding area is invited to attend.

Local Author Panel Discussion is on Wednesday, February 20 beginning at 2:00 PM (participating authors include: KD Bloodworth, Doris Durbin, Bob Honea, and Sylvia Dyer Turnage)

Classic Book Trivia Contest is on Wednesday, March 20 beginning at 2:00 PM (create teams of 4 or come and be randomly paired with others to create a 4-person team)

Movie at the Library is on Thursday, April 25 at 4:30 PM (join us to watch a book-based movie while eating some delicious popcorn)

The movie will be selected by those who vote with the most change or dollar bills for the one they want to watch. The winner will be announced on April 1. Look for collection boxes in the library lobby. Your 2 wintery choices: "Snow Falling on Cedars" (released in 1999) or "Murder on the Orient Express" (released in 1974). More details at the library.

Advocating for Libraries,
Literacy, and Lifelong Learning