

FOUCL May Bakeless Bake Sale

For many years, Friends of Union County Library (FOUCL) has been turning bakery into books, periodicals, programs, and other kinds of support for Union County Public Library with our annual May Bake Sale fundraiser.

During lockdown in 2020, we had to find another way to raise funds and we held a Bakeless Bake Sale. This spring we have decided it is still not quite time to hold a “real” bake sale so we are announcing our 2nd May Bakeless Bake Sale.

Here is our rhyming announcement:

A bit of news we have for you today, a May Bakeless Bake Sale is on the way.

In these rather unusual days, you may not wish to bake, and many may not want to buy a homemade pie or cookies or even a cake.

Besides, baking for sales can be hard work, although that’s something our members would never shirk,

But we've thought of a different and wonderful plan and feel quite sure that you'll understand.

In an envelope just put the price of a pie or a cake or something nice.

Without fuss or bother , you've done your part. We feel sure that you'll give with a willing heart.

This is the end of our little tale. Please wish FOUCL success with our May Bakeless Bake Sale.

Funds raised from this year’s bakeless bake sale are designated for future Children’s Programs. We are hoping and planning for a “real” bake sale and a return of our Everything Christmas Sale in November. Until then, we ask you to help us support the library through contributing to our May Bakeless Bake Sale.

Contributions can be dropped off at the library or mailed to FOUCL; PO Box 1546; Blairsville, GA 30514. Let us know that you intend these donations for the BBS (Bakeless Bake Sale). Checks made out to FOUCL.

Please help us raise some dough (pun intended).
