

Bakeless Bake Sale through November

What can Friends of Union County Library (FOUCL) do to raise money for the library during these crazy days? Our answer: FOUCL is once again having a Bakeless Bake Sale. Join FOUCL President Jackie Volk, and the other members of FOUCL, by putting away your baking utensils, turning off your ovens, and reaching for your check books or wallets. No fuss, no bother. Just donate money during the month of November. Funds raised from this sale will go towards the purchase of children's books for the library.

Please contribute generously, using what you might have spent on ingredients or purchases at our annual November bake sale as your guide. Checks can be made out to FOUCL (or Friends of Union County Library) with BBS (Bakeless Bake Sale) on the "For" line or, of course, we accept cash, too. There are three ways to get your money to us: 1) Drop your donations off at the Union County Public Library circulation desk; 2) Mail donations to: FOUCL; PO Box 1546; Blairsville, GA 30514; or 3) Contribute through the link to PayPal found on our website – FOUCL.org. Thanks once again for seeing us through this uniquely difficult time. We hope to have a real bake sale again in May of 2022!

Advocating for Libraries,
Literacy, and Lifelong Learning